

English Language Proficiency Requirements

THE UNIVERSITY OF
NEWCASTLE
AUSTRALIA

Listed below are the standard minimum English language proficiency requirements for entry for domestic and international applicants to programs (except for enabling programs) at the University of Newcastle. Some programs have higher-level English Language Proficiency Requirements, and these are listed in the Admission Information section of the Program Handbook entry.

The University of Newcastle has developed a visual representation of how to decide if you meet the English Language Requirements for Admission – you will need to read that document in conjunction with the below tables.

Applicants must provide evidence of English language proficiency through one of the following methods:

1. Minimum proficiency test results as outlined in Tables 1a to 1c below. English language test scores must be less than two years old at the date of application to the University of Newcastle.

For other English tests accepted by the University, please refer to Table 5 - English language skills tests concordance table to convert the IELTS requirement to TOEFL IBT (Internet-based test), PTE (Pearsons Test of English), Cambridge English Scale Score.

Table 1a - English Language Proficiency Requirements for Undergraduate and Postgraduate Programs

About Test Scores

All IELTS and PTE requirements refer to the Academic test. Non-academic tests are not accepted. All English tests have a validity of 2 years.

English Courses at the University of Newcastle

If you do not meet the English requirements for your chosen course and you need to improve your standard of English before you commence your degree, English courses are available at the University's English Language Pathways. For more information, visit:

<https://www.newcastle.edu.au/study/pathways/english-language-pathways>

Applicants who achieve the required grades through the relevant English Language Bridging Program are not required to provide further evidence of English proficiency. Students who have not undertaken the relevant ELBP with English Language Pathways will need to provide evidence of meeting the English requirements for their course as specified in the tables above.

Advice on English Language Proficiency for Admission

If you are unsure if you meet the University's English Language Proficiency for Admission requirements, contact the University to discuss your educational or professional experience as you may be entitled to a waiver.
