

University Chaplaincy Appointment and Practice Procedure

Section 1 - Introduction

(1) The University of Newcastle (University) is a diverse community which reflects the personal, intellectual, social, and spiritual dimensions of life. In this context, the University offers students and staff the opportunity to seek the assistance of Chaplains from a range of faith communities.

Section 2 - Purpose

(2) This procedure outlines the steps required to appoint Chaplains, and the responsibilities of Chaplains.

(3) For the purposes of this procedure, a Chaplain is a person who has been recognised by their denomination to provide personal, intellectual, social, and spiritual guidance.

Section 3 - Scope

(4) The provisions of this document relate to the appointment and work of University Chaplains.

(5) This Procedure should be read in conjunction with the University of Newcastle Chaplaincy Service Policy.

Section 4 - Instructions

Intake

(6) Chaplaincy roles will not be advertised. Suitable applicants may be identified if:

- a. an Expression of Interest is called by the Associate Director, Student Wellbeing because a need has been identified by the University of Newcastle Chaplaincy Service Coordinator, the Pro Vice-Chancellor Student Experience or the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) and Vice President; and/or
- b. the University of Newcastle Chaplaincy Service, the Associate Director, Student Wellbeing, the Pro Vice-Chancellor Student Experience or the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) and Vice President is approached by religious denomination and/or faith community who wishes to nominate a member of that denomination or faith community for a Chaplaincy appointment.

Recommendations and Approval

(7) A nomination must comprise:

- a. a curriculum vitae outlining the individual's relevant background, experience, and tertiary qualifications;
- b. letter of support/endorsement from an authorised representative from the governing body of the individual's faith community establishing the nominee as a member in good standing, with relevant experience and

- competency to fulfill the role of Chaplain;
- c. a current Working With Children Check (WWCC) number; and
