

Agency Information Guide

Section 1 - Introduction

(1) This Agency Information Guide (AIG) has been prepared in accordance with the University of Newcastle's ("the University") obligations under section 20 of the Government Information \(Public Access\) Act NSW 2009 (GIPA Act).

(2) This AIG:

- a. describes the structure and functions of the University;
- b. describes the ways in which the University's functions affect members of the public;
- c. specifies any arrangements that enable members of the public to participate in the formulation of University policy and exercise of the University's functions;
- d. identifies the various kinds of government information held by the University;
- e. identifies the various kinds of information that the University makes, or will make, publicly available;
- f. specifies the manner in which the University makes, or will make, government information publicly available;
and
- g. outlines the kind of information that is, or will be made publicly available free of charge, and those kinds of information for which a charge is, or will be, imposed.

Section 2 - Establishment and Structure of The University

Establishment

(3) The University was established by the University of Newcastle Act 1989.

Structure

(4) The University is a body corporate under the name of the University of Newcastle. The structure of the University is detailed in the University of Newcastle Annual Report.

(5) The University's organisational structure can be accessed in the Organisation Chart.

(6) The University's controlled entities are The University of Newcastle Research Associates (TUNRA) and UON Singapore Pte Ltd.

(7) The University comprises five divisions, five academic colleges, 15 academic schools, and a number of priority research centres.

(8) The University is a multi-campus institution in the following locations:

- a. Callaghan Campus, Newcastle;
- b. City Campus, Newcastle, including NeW Space and the Conservatorium of Music;

- c. Ourimbah Campus, Central Coast;
- d. Port Macquarie;
- e. Rural Health and Rural Clinical Schools in Orange, Tamworth, Armidale, Taree and Moree;
- f. Sydney CBD; and
- g. UON Singapore.

Section 3 - Functions of The University and their Public Effect

(9) The core functions of the University are:

- a. providing facilities for education and research of university standard;
- b. disseminating, advancing, developing and applying knowledge;
- c. providing courses of study across a range of fields, and carrying out research, that meets the needs of the community;
- d. participating in public discourse;
- e. conferring higher education degrees and awards;
- f. providing teaching and learning that engages with advanced knowledge and inquiry;
- g. developing governance, procedural rules, policies, financial arrangements and quality assurance processes to ensure the integrity of the University's academic progress;
- h. the exercise of commercial functions;
- i. the development and provision of cultural, sporting, professional, technical and vocational services to the community; and
- j. general and ancillary functions as may be necessary or convenient for the University to promote the objectives and interests of the University, or as may complement or be incidental to the promotion of the objectives and interests of the University.

How these functions affect members of the public

(10) The University serves the communities where our campuses are located, predominantly in the Newcastle, Hunter Valley and Central Coast areas of NSW. In these regions, we maintain close partnerships with business and industry.

(11) Engaging with the communities we serve is intrinsic to the University's mission. At the heart of community-university engagement is mutually beneficial relationships that strengthen our region and enhance research and innovation and teaching and learning for our students.

(12) Our staff, students and alumni are a resource for our whole community. Through community-based learning, engaged learning (Work Integrated Learning) volunteering, leadership programs, research and innovation, teaching and practice, our staff and students combine with the community to build on existing strengths and provide not just educational but cultural, sporting, professional, technical and vocational services to members of the public.

(13) Members of the public are encouraged to provide comment on the activities of the University through direct contact, select committees, or via the University's Ask UON online feedback form.

(14) More information about the University's community involvement can be found at Community Engagement.

Section 4 - Formulation of University Policy

(15) The University's decision-making is guided by the strategic objectives in the University Strategic Plan.

(16) As a NSW Government agency, the University is accountable to the NSW public. As a body that receives public funding, the University is also accountable to the government providing the funding.

University Council

(17) The University Council (Council) is the University's governing body. Section 16 of the University of Newcastle Act 1989 No 68 gives Council responsibility for the management of the affairs and concerns of the University, and Council may act in all matters concerning the University.

Academic Senate

(18) Academic Senate is the University's principal academic body. It oversees academic governance and the maintenance of academic standards; advises the Vice-Chancellor and Council on matters relating to the conduct and standards of teaching, scholarship and research; and has a major role in academic quality assurance through its Committees.

(19) Most members of the Academic Senate are elected by the University academic staff. Other members are elected student members or ex officio.

College Boards

(20) Each College has a College Board that provides advice and refers to the Academic Senate.

Executive Committee

(21) The Executive Committee is drawn from senior leadership of the University's colleges and divisions and provides advice to the Vice-Chancellor on matters of strategic importance and operational significance.

University Committees

(22) Staff and students, and in some cases other community members, are able to contribute to policy development through committee membership.

(23) Information regarding the University's governing bodies can be found at Governing Bodies.

Section 5 - Government Information Held by the University

(24) The University supports openness with regard to government information. Information may be available as outlined below.

Open Access Information

(25) The University maintains a range of open access information at Access to Information. This includes:

- a. this AIG;
- b. information about the University contained in any document tabled in Parliament by or on behalf of the University, for example the University of Newcastle Annual Report;

- c. relevant University policy documents, contained in the University's Policy Library;
- d. information on disclosures made as a result of a formal GIPA application that the University considers to be in the broader public interest, found in the University's disclosure log; and
- e. a Register of Government Contracts entered into by the University in which the University spends, or is likely to spend, over $150,000.

Proactive Release of Information

(26) The University proactively releases a wide range of information on the University website and through public access facilities.

Published Information

(27) The University regularly produces free publications of direct interest to students. These program documents, handbooks and brochures are available at Student Central.

(28) Detailed information relating to all University matters is published annually in the University of Newcastle's Annual Report.

Research

(29) Information relating to research funding, grants and contracts, performance and reporting, monitoring and promoting ethical research and contact information is available at Research Advantage.

(30) Researcher profiles are available at Highlighted Researchers.

(31) Research theses are available in the NOVA Research Online system.

Corporate Information

(32) The University holds data collected as a result of its administrative and quality assurance activities.

(33) The following principles apply to data that is used for internal quality assurance and benchmarking purposes:

- a. institutions are de-identified unless the information is already in the public domain - this includes removing any obvious attributes that may be present in the comparative data; and
- b. qualitative data is reviewed to confirm de-identification and anonymity.

Library

(34) The University operates four Library buildings and an online library environment. The Library holds information relating to and identifying persons entitled to use its services. Further information and contact details is available on the Library New Cat Library Catalogue.

University Archives

(35) The University Archives unit is located in the Auchmuty Library on Callaghan Campus. Further information about the Archives unit is available at Archive and Manuscripts Collections.

Donors

(36) The University is a registered deductible gift recipient and receives philanthropic support from various sources. Confidential donor information is not made public. Further information can be found at Give to UON.

Alumni

(37) Alumni of the University includes graduates of the University, past and present members of the University Council, academic staff, and other people admitted under the By-law. The University is committed to building and nurturing lifelong relationships with its alumni. More information can be found on the Alumni webpage.

Informal Release of Information

(38) Wherever possible, the University provides requested information informally, without the need of a formal application form. The University may impose reasonable conditions prior to release of the information.

(39) Requests for personal information are granted in line with the access principles prescribed by the Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act 1998 \(NSW\). If a formal request is required, guidance is available from the Right to Information Officer (see clause 52 for contact details).

(40) Information may be accessed informally if it is:

- a. an individual's own personnel file – staff members can contact the Human Resources Officer or their college or division to request information; or
- b. an individual's own student information – students can contact the Faculty Liaison Coordinator at Student Central. Requests for informal release of information can be made directly to the relevant school, college, division or unit.

Formal Applications for Information

(41) A formal application for access to information is required when the information is not already available and cannot be provided informally.

(42) A formal application will be required when the information is considered to contain sensitive material or contains detail about a third party.

(43) For a formal application to be considered valid, it must include:

- a. proof of identity;
- b. detailed description of the information sought; and
- c. a $30 application fee.

(44) An applicant may request a review of certain decisions relating to a formal application via:

- a. an internal review – a fee of $40 is payable in most cases;
- b. Information and Privacy Commission New South Wales; and/or
- c. NSW Civil and Administrative Tribunal.

Fees and Charges

(45) Fees for requests for information fall into two categories – application fees and processing fees.

(46) A $30 application fee covers applications for both personal and non-personal information, which covers up to one hour of processing time.

(47) Processing fees cover time for locating information, decision making, and consultation where necessary and any photocopying. A fee of $30 per hour may be charged for processing personal and non-personal information.

(48) The University may request an advance deposit for estimated processing fees.

(49) Applicants are entitled to up to 20 hours of free processing time for access to their own personal information.

(50) Fees relating to requests for information under the GIPA Act are GST exempt and may be reduced by 50% if:

- a. the applicant is under 18 years of age;
- b. the applicant can demonstrate personal financial hardship;
- c. the application is on the behalf of a non-profit organisation; or
- d. the applicant can demonstrate a special public benefit.

(51) If the University makes the information publicly available within 3 working days after providing access, the applicant is entitled to a waiver of any processing charge.

Section 6 - Contact and Further Advice

Access to Information Officer

(52) The Access to Information Officer can assist members of the public, staff and students to locate publicly available information and provide advice on the GIPA Act and application process.
