- q. is lewd or obscene; or
- r. encourages, persuades or incites any other person to engage in similar conduct.

Part C - Concerning Behaviour

Notification of Concerning Behaviour

(15) A complainant may make a report about concerning behaviour to Campus Care, the Behavioural Risk Group, the Vice-Chancellor, the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) and Vice President, or the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Research and Innovation).

Enforced Leave

(16) Upon receiving a report related to concerning behaviour, the Vice-Chancellor, Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) and Vice President or Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Research and Innovation) (under these Clauses 16-22, an officer) can, without limitation, place a student on enforced leave, when a student's actions, statements or behaviour may:

- a. create a threat to the health, safety and/or welfare of the student or other people; and/or
- b. create a threat to property, animals or the environment.

(17) The officer imposing the enforced leave will notify the student in writing of the reasons for the enforced leave, the length of the enforced leave and any relevant conditions.

(18) The student will be given 5 working days to respond to the notification of enforced leave in writing.

(19) If the student provides a written response to the decision regarding enforced leave, the officer responsible for the decision will consider the student's response and may:

- a. lift the enforced leave;
- b. confirm the period of enforced leave; or
- c. extend the period of enforced leave.

(20) The officer may lift or vary the period of enforced leave at any time, in their absolute discretion.

(21) A student's failure to observe the enforced leave will be treated as an act of student misconduct and may be subject to the imposition of a penalty in accordance with this Rule.

(22) Any determination by the officer to impose enforced leave will take effect immediately, notwithstanding the fact that the student may submit a written response under Clause 18.

Part D - Academic Misconduct

Notification of Academic Misconduct

(23) A complainant may make an allegation of academic misconduct against a student by written notice to a Student Academic Conduct Officer or the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) and Vice President.

Actions to be taken by the Student Academic Conduct Officer

(24) Upon receipt of an allegation of academic misconduct, the relevant Student Academic Conduct Officer will review the allegation and then:

- a. dismiss the allegation; or
- b. issue the student with a Notice to Show Cause; or
- c. in instances where there may be a concern about conflict of interest, refer the allegation to a Student Academic Conduct Officer in another school; or
- d. in consultation with the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) and Vice President, refer the matter to the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) and Vice President.

(25) If the Student Academic Conduct Officer issues the student with a Notice to Show Cause:

- a. the student will be given an opportunity to provide a written response to the Student Academic Conduct Officer;
- b. if the student provides a written response within the time nominated in the Notice to Show Cause, the Student Academic Conduct Officer will consider the response prior to making a determination; and
- c. the Student Academic Conduct Officer will:
 - i. dismiss the allegation; or
 - ii. confirm the allegation and impose a penalty; or
 - iii. refer the allegation to the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) and Vice President.

(26) The Student Academic Conduct Officer will inform the student in writing of the determination, including reasons for the determination and any right to appeal the determination.

(27) Any determination by the Student Academic Conduct Officer to impose a penalty will not take effect until the period for appeal (if any) has expired.

Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) and Vice President

(28) If an allegation of academic misconduct is referred to the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) and Vice President, the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) and Vice President will review any supporting material considered by the Student Academic Conduct Officer, and any recommendations.

(29) The Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) and Vice President may:

- a. request the Student Academic Conduct Officer to obtain further information relevant to the allegation or may make his or her own inquiries;
- b. consider any findings or recommendations made by the Student Academic Conduct Officer, but will exercise his or her own judgement in making a determination; or
- c. issue the student with a Notice to Show Cause if the matter has been referred directly to the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) and Vice President, in which case:
 - i. the student will be given an opportunity to provide a written response within a time frame nominated in the Notice to Show Cause; and
 - ii. if the student provides a written response within the time nominated, the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) and Vice President will consider the response prior to making a determination.

(30) The Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) and Vice President will:

- a. dismiss the allegation; or
- b. confirm the allegation and impose a penalty; or
- c. refer the matter back to the Student Academic Conduct Officer with advice on the action required.

(31) The Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) and Vice President will inform the student in writing of the determination, including reasons for the determination and any right to appeal the determination.

(32) Any determination by the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) and Vice President to impose a penalty will not take effect until the period for appeal (if any) has expired, or if the student lodges an appeal, the appeal has been dismissed.

Part E - Research Misconduct

Notification of Research Misconduct

(33) A complainant may make an allegation of research misconduct against a student by written notice to the Dean of Graduate Research.

Actions to be taken by the Dean of Graduate Research

(34) Upon receipt of an allegation of research misconduct, the Dean of Graduate Research may appoint an Assessment Officer to prepare a Preliminary Assessment Report with reference to the Australian Code for the Responsible Conduct of Research and the Student Academic Integrity Policy.

(35) Upon receipt and review of the Preliminary Assessment Report, the Dean of Graduate Research may:

- a. request the Assessment Officer to obtain further information relevant to the allegation; and
- b. consider any findings or recommendations made by the Assessment Officer, but will exercise his or her own judgement in making a determination.

(36) The Dean of Graduate Research will:

- a. dismiss the allegation;
- b. issue the student with a Notice to Show Cause; or
- c. in instances where there may be a concern about conflict of interest, refer the allegation to a College Pro Vice-Chancellor.

(37) If the Dean of Graduate Research, or the College Pro Vice-Chancellor (if appropriate), issues the student with a Notice to Show Cause:

- a. the student will be given an opportunity to provide a written response within a time frame nominated by the Dean of Graduate Research or the College Pro Vice-Chancellor;
- b. if the student provides a written response within the time nominated in the Notice to Show Cause, the Dean of Graduate Research, or the College Pro Vice-Chancellor, will consider the response prior to making a determination; and
- c. the Dean of Graduate Research, or the College Pro Vice-Chancellor, will:
 - i. dismiss the allegation; or
 - ii. confirm the allegation and impose a penalty; or
 - iii. refer the allegation to the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Research and Innovation).

(38) The Dean of Graduate Research, or the College Pro Vice-Chancellor, will inform the student in writing of the determination, including reasons for the determination and any right to appeal the determination.

(39) Any determination by the Dean of Graduate Research, or the College Pro Vice-Chancellor, to impose a penalty will not take effect until the period for appeal has expired, or if the student lodges an appeal, the appeal has been dismissed.

Referral to the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Research and Innovation)

(40) If an allegation of Research Misconduct is referred to the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Research and Innovation), the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Research and Innovation) will review the Preliminary Assessment Report, any supporting material considered by the Dean of Graduate Research, and any recommendations.

(41) The Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Research and Innovation) may:

- a. request the Dean of Graduate Research, or the College Pro Vice-Chancellor (if appropriate), to obtain further information relevant to the allegation; and
- b. consider any findings or recommendations made by the Dean of Graduate Research or the College Pro Vice-Chancellor, but will exercise his or her own judgement in making a determination.

(42) The Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Research and Innovation) will:

- a. dismiss the allegation; or
- b. confirm the allegation and impose a penalty; or
- c. refer the matter back to the Dean of Graduate Research with advice on the action required; or
- d. refer the allegation to an independent internal or external inquiry as appropriate, consistent with the provisions of the Australian Code for the Responsible Conduct of Research.

(43) If the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Research and Innovation) refers the allegation to an independent external inquiry, the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Research and Innovation) will:

- a. commission a written report from the independent external inquiry following its investigation;
- b. consider the report, and then:
 - i. dismiss the allegation; or
 - ii. confirm the allegation and impose a penalty.

(44) The Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Research and Innovation) will inform the student in writing of the determination, including reasons for the determination and any right to appeal the determination.

(45) Any determination by the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Research and Innovation) to impose a penalty will not take effect until the period for appeal has expired, or if the student lodges an appeal, the appeal has been dismissed.

Part F - Non-Academic Misconduct

Notification of Non-Academic Misconduct

(46) A complainant may make an allegation of non-academic misconduct against a student by written notice to the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) and Vice President.

(47) A complainant may make an allegation of non-academic misconduct (student accommodation) against a student by written notice to the Student Living Support Manager.

Actions to be taken by the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) and Vice President

(48) Upon receipt of an allegation of non-academic misconduct, the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) and Vice President may appoint an Assessment Officer to prepare a Preliminary Assessment Report.

(49) Upon receipt and review of the Preliminary Assessment Report, the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) and Vice President may:

- a. request the Assessment Officer to obtain further information relevant to the allegation; and
- b. consider any findings or recommendations but will exercise his or her own judgement in making a determination.

(50) The Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) and Vice President will:

- a. dismiss the allegation; or
- b. issue the student with a Notice to Show Cause.

(51) If the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) and Vice President issues the student with a Notice to Show Cause:

- a. the student will be given an opportunity to provide a written response within a time frame nominated by the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) and Vice President;
- b. if the student provides a written response within the time nominated in the Notice to Show Cause, the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) and Vice President will consider the response prior to making a determination; and
- c. the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) and Vice President will:
 - i. dismiss the allegation; or
 - ii. confirm the allegation and impose a penalty.

(52) The Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) and Vice President will inform the student in writing of the determination, including reasons for the determination and any right to appeal the determination.

(53) Any determination by the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) and Vice President to impose a penalty will not take effect until the period for appeal has expired, or if the student lodges an appeal, the appeal has been dismissed.

Actions to be taken by the Student Living Support Manager

(54) Upon receipt of an allegation of non-academic misconduct (student accommodation), the Student Living Support Manager may:

- a. dismiss the allegation; or
- b. issue the student with a Notice to Show Cause; or
- c. in consultation with the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) and Vice President refer the matter to the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) and Vice President for determination in accordance with Clauses 48-53.

(55) If the Student Living Support Manager Issues the student with a Notice to Show Cause:

- a. the student will be given an opportunity to provide a written response within a time frame nominated by the Student Living Support Manager.
- b. if the student provides a written response within the time nominated in the Notice to Show Cause, the Student Living Support Manager will consider the response prior to making a determination; and
- c. the Student Living Support Manager will:
 - i. dismiss the allegation; or
 - ii. confirm the allegation and impose a penalty; or
 - iii. refer the allegation to the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) and Vice President

(56) The Student Living Support Manager will inform the student in writing of the determination, including reasons for the determination and any right to appeal the determination.

(57) Any determination by the Student Living Support Manager to impose a penalty will not take effect until the period for appeal (if any) has expired, or if the student lodges an appeal, the appeal has been dismissed.

(58) Any action under taken by the University under these Clauses 54-58 will not affect the University's rights under any student occupancy agreement.

Part G - Concerning Behaviour

Immediate Suspension

(59) Upon receiving an allegation of student misconduct, the Vice-Chancellor, Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) and Vice President or Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Research and Innovation) (under these Clauses 59-66, an officer) can, without limitation, place a student on suspension, effective immediately (immediate suspension), when a student's actions, statements or behaviour may:

- a. create a threat to the health, safety and/or welfare of the student or other people; and/or
- b. create a threat to property, animals or the environment.

(60) The officer will notify the student in writing of the reasons for the immediate suspension, the length of the immediate suspension and any relevant conditions.

(61) The student will be given 5 working days to respond to the notification of immediate suspension in writing.

(62) If the student provides a written response to the decision regarding immediate suspension, the officer will consider the student's response and then may:

- a. lift the immediate suspension; or
- b. confirm the immediate suspension; or
- c. extend the immediate suspension.

(63) The officer may lift or vary the immediate suspension at any time, in their absolute discretion.

(64) A student's failure to observe the immediate suspension will be treated as an act of student misconduct and may be subject to the imposition of a penalty in accordance with this Rule.

(65) Any determination by the officer to impose an immediate suspension will take effect immediately, notwithstanding the fact that the student may submit a written response under Clause 61.

(66) Any action under taken by the University under these Clauses 59-66 will not affect the University's rights under any student occupancy agreement.

Part H - Appeals

Process

(67) A student may appeal a decision to impose a penalty made under the following clauses:

- a. Clause 25(c)(ii) – Student Academic Conduct Officer;
- b. Clause 30(b) – Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) and Vice President;
- c. Clause 37(c)(ii) – Dean of Graduate Research;
- d. Clauses 42(b) and 43(b)(ii) – Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Research and Innovation);
- e. Clause 51(c)(ii) – Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) and Vice President; and
- f. Clause 55(c)(ii) – Student Living Support Manager.

(68) The student may lodge an appeal within 5 working days of notice of the determination imposing the penalty. If the student holds a student visa and the penalty imposed is suspension, exclusion or expulsion, the student may lodge an appeal within 20 working days of notice of the determination imposing the penalty.

(69) An appeal may only be on the basis upon one or more of the following grounds:

- a. evidence of a breach of this Rule;
- b. evidence that the determination was affected by a conflict of interest; and/or
- c. new information has become available that could not reasonably have been provided by the student earlier, and it is probable that this information would have affected the determination.

(70) An appeal on the grounds of penalty alone will not be considered.

(71) An appeal must be made in writing and the grounds of appeal must be clearly set out.

(72) An appeal is to be made to an Appeal Officer, to be determined as follows:

Original Decision Maker	Appeal Officer
Student Academic Conduct Officer	Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) and Vice President
Student Living Support Manager	Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) and Vice President

Original Decision Maker	Appeal Officer
Dean of Graduate Research	Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Research and Innovation)
Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) and Vice President	Vice-Chancellor
Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Research and Innovation)	Vice-Chancellor

(73) Upon receipt of an appeal made in time, the Appeal Officer:

- a. will consider the information provided in the appeal, to the extent that the information relates to one of the grounds of appeal set out in Clause 69;
- b. will consider material taken into account by the original decision maker in making their determination, which is relevant to the grounds of appeal;
- c. may request further information from the student or from the original decision maker; and
- d. will then:
 - i. dismiss the appeal; or
 - ii. uphold the appeal and discharge the penalty; or
 - iii. uphold the appeal and vary the penalty.

Determination is Final

(74) The Appeal Officer will inform the student in writing of the determination, including reasons for the determination.

(75) The determination of the Appeal Officer is final and there is no further avenue of appeal within the University.

(76) The student may have the right to further appeal outside the University to the NSW Ombudsman.

Part I - Penalties

General

(77) If an allegation of student misconduct is confirmed, either in full or in part, a penalty may be imposed.

- e. impose a fine not exceeding $500;

- f. require the student to apologise formally to any aggrieved party;
- g. transfer the student to a different room within the University Student Living residential area; or
- h. remove student privileges, including:
 - i. ability to host guests in University Student Living residential area;
 - ii. on-site alcohol ban for a specified duration; and
 - iii. right to attend Residential Life events and activities.

Non-Academic Misconduct

(84) The Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) and Vice President may impose one or more of the following penalties for non-academic misconduct and, where appropriate, non-academic misconduct (student accommodation):

- a. reprimand, caution or warn the student;
- b. require the student to undertake counselling or training
- c. require the student to compensate the University for any damage done to or theft of University property;
- d. impose a fine not exceeding $1,000;
- e. require the student to apologise formally to any aggrieved party;
- f. suspend the student for a specified period of time;
- g. exclude the student for a specified period of time, at the end of which the student will be required to apply for re-admission to the University;
- h. expel the student from the University;
- i. any other penalty considered appropriate.

(85) Any action under taken by the University under Clause 84 will not affect the University's rights under any student occupancy agreement.

Vice-Chancellor

(86) When making a determination, the Vice-Chancellor may impose any of the penalties in Clauses 79 to 84.

Undischarged Penalties

(87) The Vice-Chancellor or relevant Deputy Vice-Chancellor may determine that a student cannot:

- a. re-enrol at the University;
- b. access course or program results; and/or
- c. return from suspension, exclusion or enforced leave; until the imposed penalty has been served and/or conditions have been met.

Part J - Administration

Notice to Show Cause

(88) A Notice to Show Cause is a written notice informing the student of the following:

- a. details of the allegation of student misconduct;
- b. reference to the relevant sections of this Rule;
- c. advice that the student may provide a written response to the Notice;
- d. the date by which any written response to the Notice must be received;

- e. advice that the student may be subject to a penalty in accordance with this Rule;
- f. the contact details to which any response from the student is to be sent; and
- g. the contact details of the Student Advocates and other relevant student support services.

Confidentiality

(89) All actions taken in accordance to this Rule are confidential.

(90) Subject to Clause 92, the student is required to keep the following information confidential by not discussing, publishing or referring to the information:

- a. the fact that an allegation of student misconduct has been made;
- b. the identity of any person who made the allegation;
- c. the identity of any person who has provided information in respect of the allegation;
- d. any correspondence or notification sent to the student on behalf of the University;
- e. any correspondence or response sent to the University by the student;
- f. any documents or materials provided to the student in order to provide a written response in accordance with this Rule;
- g. a determination made in accordance with this Rule; and
- h. any penalty imposed in accordance with this Rule.

(91) Breach of confidentiality may constitute non-academic misconduct and be subject to a penalty in accordance with this Rule.

(92) A student may disclose a matter set out in Clause 90, in the following limited circumstances:
