

Awards and Graduation Policy

Section 1 - Audience

(1) This policy applies to all awards at the University of Newcastle (University).

Section 2 - Purpose

(2) The purpose of this policy is to provide guidance on University requirements and responsibilities for:

- a. the conferral of awards;
- b. graduation ceremonies;
- c. graduation documents;
- d. academic dress; and
- e. award abbreviations.

Section 3 - Awards

(3) The awards referred to in this policy and its schedules may be conferred and awarded to students who have satisfied the provisions of this policy and any relevant rules, schedules, and other requirements.

(4) The awards approved are listed in Schedule 1 and Schedule 2 of this policy.

Section 4 - Eligibility for conferral of an award

(5) A student will be qualified for the conferral of an award when they have satisfied the requirements of their program, unless:

- a. an allegation of student misconduct has been made against the student and the matter remains under investigation in accordance with the Student Conduct Rule or any other relevant policy document; or
- b. the student has not discharged any debt to the University or made appropriate arrangements acceptable to the Vice-Chancellor, Senior Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) or Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Research and Innovation) for the discharge of any such indebtedness.

(6) For coursework programs, the Academic Division General Manager and Academic Registrar will ensure that qualification and conferral of an award is recorded in the student records system once the student has met the requirements of their program.

(7) For Higher Degree by Research programs, the Dean of Graduate Research will ensure that program completions and conferrals are recorded in the student records system for candidates who have met the requirements of their program.

(8) For the purposes of this policy, the Senior Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) will inform the Academic Division

General Manager and Academic Registrar of any students who are under investigation for an allegation of student misconduct and who have been qualified for conferral of an award.

(9) Upon conferral, the student becomes a graduate of the University.

Section 5 - Posthumous Awards

(10) Posthumous awards shall be considered on an individual basis following the submission of a formal request.

(11) The President Academic Senate holds delegated authority to approve the waiver of program requirements to grant a posthumous award.

(12) The College offering the program for which a deceased student was enrolled is responsible for confirming:

- a. the student's completion of their final semester or component of the program;
- b. their satisfaction, beyond doubt and on the basis of work completed during the year, that the student demonstrated capacity to complete the program and would have satisfactorily completed the requirements for their award.

Section 6 - Awarding with Distinction

(13) The University will award relevant AQF level 7 Bachelor programs and AQF 9 Masters coursework and Masters Extended programs as ordinary degrees, except where students achieve a minimum Grade Point Average (GPA) of 6.0 based on all studies undertaken in the program, when the degree may be awarded 'with Distinction'.

Eligibility

(14) A student will be eligible to be awarded their degree 'with Distinction' when they:

- a. have completed a program that is eligible to be awarded 'with Distinction';
- b. meet all program requirements and be eligible to be awarded an ordinary degree;
- c. complete at least 50 per cent of their program at the University of Newcastle; and
- d. achieve a minimum GPA of 6.0 based on all studies undertaken in the program.

(15) Students who complete a degree under an approved articulation agreement, where less than 50% of their units are completed at the University, may be eligible to be awarded their degree 'with Distinction', provided they achieve a minimum GPA of 6.0 based on all studies undertaken in the program.

(16) The below listed AQF compliant programs are not eligible to be awarded 'with Distinction':

- a. all AQF level 5 Diploma programs;
- b. all AQF level 8 Bachelor Honours programs;
- c. all AQF level 8 Graduate Certificate and Graduate Diploma programs;
- d. all AQF level 9 Masters by Research programs; and
- e. all AQF level 10 Doctoral Degrees programs.

(17) The below pre-AQF programs are not eligible to be awarded 'with Distinction':

- a. Bachelor of Engineering;

(18) Professional doctorate programs are not eligible to be awarded 'with Distinction'.

(19) A cumulative GPA will be calculated for each graduating student to determine their eligibility to be awarded their degree 'with Distinction', as per the Grade Point Average Calculation Guideline.

(20) The award 'with Distinction' for the Bachelor of Medicine – Joint Medical Program (JMP) is to be made in accordance with the Joint Medical Program \(JMP\) Award of Bachelor of Medicine with Distinction Guideline.

The Bachelor of Medical Science and Doctor of Medicine – Joint Medical Program is not eligible to be awarded 'with Distinction'.

Section 7 - Graduation ceremonies

(21) Graduates will be invited to attend a graduation ceremony.

(22) The Vice-Chancellor approves the dates and locations of each graduation ceremony on the recommendation of the Senior Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic). The Chancellor, or another person appointed by the Council, is the Presiding Officer at the graduation ceremony. The Presiding Officer is authorised by the Council to present graduation documents to graduates at the ceremonies.

(23) Graduates may choose to attend the graduation ceremony, defer attendance to a future graduation ceremony, or request their graduation documents to be issued after the scheduled ceremony if they do not attend.

Recognition Ceremonies Conducted by Partner Institutions

(24) Partner institutions may hold recognition or prize giving ceremonies to celebrate the achievements of students based at those institutions. Prize giving or recognition ceremonies are not official graduation ceremonies.

(25) Senior officers of the University, including the Chancellor, Vice-Chancellor, Deputy Chancellor or any College Pro Vice-Chancellor or Division Pro Vice-Chancellor are encouraged to attend as invited guests at prize giving or recognition ceremonies, but do not officiate at such ceremonies.

(26) Certificates of Participation or Recognition Certificates may be presented at recognition ceremonies. Testamurs of the University must only be presented at formal graduation ceremonies of the University.

(27) Graduates must wear academic dress at recognition ceremonies. The hire of academic dress is arranged by the partner institution.

(28) Plans by a partner institution to hold a recognition ceremony, or requests for University involvement at such ceremonies, should be communicated to the Academic Division General Manager and Academic Registrar as soon as possible to ensure that the University's support and involvement is coordinated.

Section 8 - Graduation documents

(29) Graduation documents issued by the University include a testamur, academic transcript, and Australian Higher Education Graduation Statement (AHEGS).

(30) The academic transcript is an official record of studies undertaken at the University and will indicate the date on which the student was qualified and conferred in the program.

(31) The testamur is an official award certificate issued by the University. A testamur is presented at a graduation ceremony. After conferral, graduates may apply for the release of their testamur if they opt to not attend a graduation ceremony.

- (32) The University may issue graduation documents in printed and/or verified digital format.
- (33) Graduation documents will not be released and students will not be admitted to a degree or awarded a diploma if:
- a. the student is indebted to the University or has not made arrangements to discharge such a debt; or
  - b. an allegation of student misconduct has been made against the student and the allegation remains under investigation in accordance with the Student Conduct Rule.
- (34) Graduates who elect to attend a graduation ceremony will receive:
- a. a copy of their academic transcript; and
  - b. their testamur, unless they have requested an early release of their testamur in which case they will receive a certificate of participation.
- (35) A lost or destroyed testamur can be replaced upon application and provision of appropriate declarations where the prescribed fee has either been paid or waived. Multiple copies of testamurs cannot be provided.
- (36) Additional copies of academic transcripts are available upon request for a prescribed fee which must be either paid or waived before the copies are provided.
- (37) AHEGS statements will be issued electronically after graduation ceremonies and printed copies are available upon request and where the prescribed fee has either been paid or waived, unless the student is indebted to the University.

Section 9 - Conferral and reporting of awards

- (38) The names of all graduates and the awards conferred will be approved under delegated authority by the Vice-Chancellor and reported annually to the Council by the Academic Division General Manager and Academic Registrar.

Section 10 - Academic dress

- (39) Members of the University will appear in academic dress in accordance with this policy when attending public occasions convened for academic purposes and on such other occasions as the Council may appoint.
- (40) The academic dress for the Chancellor, Deputy Chancellor, Vice-Chancellor, members of the Council, staff and other authorised persons is as follows:
- a. the Chancellor - the accustomed robes of that office, decorated in gold;
  - b. the Deputy Chancellor - the accustomed robes of that office, except that on a ceremonial occasion and in the absence of the Chancellor the Chancellor's robes may be worn by the Deputy Chancellor; and in the absence of both the Chancellor and the Deputy Chancellor such robes will be worn by the person appointed by the Council to preside at the occasion;
  - c. the Vice-Chancellor - similar to that worn by the Chancellor but decorated in silver;
  - d. members of the Council - the habit of their degree or, if any such member is not a graduate, a black Master's gown, with front panels and shoulder cover in cardinal red silk, and a cap as worn by Masters of Arts of the University of Cambridge;
  - e. staff of the University who are graduates - the habit of their degree;
  - f. any other person not being a graduate, authorised by the Council - a plain black Master's gown and cap as worn by Masters of Arts of the University of Cambridge.

- (41) The academic dress for graduates of the University is:

Award	Academic Dress
Higher Doctoral Degree	A festal gown of cardinal red cloth, with a hood of garnet cloth lined with silk cloth of the appropriate colour, and a black velvet bonnet with a gold cord.
Doctors of Philosophy	A gown of garnet cloth faced with silver grey to a width of 10 cm, with a hood of garnet lined with silver grey and a black velvet bonnet with a silver cord.
