

International Students Refund Procedure

Section 1 - Executive Summary

(1) This procedure:

- a. sets out the circumstances in which the University will refund Tuition Fees and other Fees paid by or on behalf of International Students, and
- b. meets the requirements of the ESOS Legislative Framework.

Section 2 - Purpose

(2) The purpose of this procedure is to outline:

- a. who is eligible for a refund,
- b. how an application for a refund can be made,
- c. how refunds will be made,
- d. how refund amounts are calculated, and
- e. how to lodge a complaint or appeal against a refund decision.

Section 3 - Scope

(3) This procedure applies to Programs registered on the Commonwealth Register of Institutions and Courses for Overseas Students (CRICOS) by the University (CRICOS provider number 00109J) that are delivered by an Australian campus of the University.

(4) This procedure applies to International Students who:

- a. accept an Offer of Admission from the University or
- b. enrol in a Program at the University.

Section 4 - Eligibility for a Refund of Tuition Fees

(5) An International Student may be eligible for a full refund of Tuition Fees where:

- a. the Offer of Admission for any Program is withdrawn by the University prior to the International Student's enrolment in that Program, or
- b. the Written Agreement is terminated prior to the Commencement of any Term, or
- c. the University is unable to provide the Program shown in the Written Agreement and the International Student does not accept an alternative Offer of Admission from the University, or
- d. the International Student withdraws their application for a Student Visa after they accept an Offer of Admission but before the Student Visa is granted.

(6) An International Student may be eligible for a partial refund of Tuition Fees where:

- a. the International Student is refused a Student Visa by the Australian Government and the visa refusal was the reason that caused the International Student to default, or
- b. the International Student withdraws or discontinues from a Program after a Student Visa is granted, or
- c. after commencing studies but before the census date, the International Student receives approval from the Australian Government to change their visa status to permanent resident, or
- d. the International Student has accepted a Packaged Offer and has an approved Student Visa and withdraws from any Program in that Package, or
- e. the International Student can demonstrate and provide evidence of exceptional, compelling or compassionate circumstances beyond their control.

(7) An International Student is not eligible for a refund of Tuition Fees where:

- a. the International Student's Student Visa is cancelled by the Australian Government for any reason, or
- b. any information submitted by the International Student or on their behalf as part of their application for admission, or their application for a Student Visa is found to be false or fraudulent or misleading in a material matter, or
- c. the International Student withdraws from a Program after the census date of the Term for which they are enrolled, or
- d. the International Student is a Higher Degree by Research Student who withdraws from a Program more than 4 weeks after the Commencement of the Program, or
- e. the International Student is an ELICOS Student who withdraws after the Commencement of their ELICOS Program, or
- f. the International Student requests to transfer from the University to another provider without meeting the requirements for release in accordance with the ESOS Legislative Framework, or
- g. the International Student's admission or enrolment has been suspended or terminated by the University for any reason, or
- h. the International Student is otherwise in breach of their Written Agreement with the University, or
- i. in lieu of a refund the International Student has accepted an Offer of Admission in an alternate Program or ELICOS Program offered by the University, where the University is unable to provide the original Program or ELICOS Program, or
- j. the University is prohibited from doing so by relevant laws.

Section 5 - Conditions for Partial Refund of Tuition Fees

(8) The University will make a partial refund of Tuition Fees paid if the International Student is refused a Student Visa by the Australian Government and the visa refusal was the reason that directly or indirectly caused the International Student to default. In these circumstances:

- a. the University will refund the total Tuition Fees paid less an amount which will be the lesser of:
  - i. 5% of the total amount of prepaid Tuition Fees the University has received before the day of default in respect of any Program now not being undertaken, and
  - ii. the amount of AUD$500, and
- b. the University will charge an administration fee of AUD$500, which will be deducted from any prepaid Tuition Fees.

(9) The University will make a partial refund of Tuition Fees paid if the International Student withdraws or discontinues from a Program after a Student Visa is granted. In these circumstances, the amount that the University refunds will be determined by the notice period given as follows:

- a. if the International Student gives at least 4 weeks' notice prior to the Commencement of the relevant Term, the University will retain 30% of all prepaid Tuition Fees for that Program,
- b. if the International Student gives less than 4 weeks' notice prior to the Commencement of the relevant Term, the University will retain 60% of all prepaid Tuition Fees for that Program,
- c. if the International Student withdraws from or discontinues their Program after Commencement of the relevant Term and prior to the relevant census date, the University will retain 75% of all prepaid Tuition Fees for that Program,
- d. if the International Student withdraws from or discontinues their Program after Commencement of the relevant Term and after the relevant census date, the University will retain 100% of all prepaid Tuition Fees for that Program.

(10) If the International Student has accepted a Packaged Offer and has an approved Student Visa and withdraws from any Program in that Package:

- a. the International Student is not entitled to a refund of any Deposit of Tuition Fees paid for the Principal program, and
- b. the International Student may be eligible for a partial refund of Tuition Fees paid for any Preliminary Programs in the Packaged Offer. The amount that the University may refund will be determined by the notice period given under Clause 9.

(11) An International Student who is an ELICOS Student will be eligible for a refund of any prepaid Tuition Fees paid over and above the amount paid for a standard 10-week Term.

(12) If the International Student applies for a partial refund of Tuition Fees paid on the grounds of exceptional compelling or compassionate circumstances, any decision in regard to the International Student's application is at the University's discretion.

Section 6 - Conditions for Partial Refund of Tuition Fees Where Change in Visa Status

(13) Permanent resident status is recognised by the University from the date on which proof of such status is provided to the University by the International Student, not the date on which the application for permanent residency was made or granted.

(14) If the International Student provides evidence to the University that their status has been changed to permanent resident after commencing their studies but before the census date for that Term, any application for a refund will be assessed under clause 9 of this procedure.

(15) If the International Student provides evidence to the University that their status has been changed to permanent resident after commencing their studies, but after the census date for that Term:

- a. the International Student will be classified as an International Student for the remainder of that Term and will not be entitled to receive any refund of Tuition Fees for that Term, and
- b. the International Student will be classified by the University as a permanent resident from the following Term.

Section 7 - Eligibility for a Refund of the Student Services and Amenities Fee (SSAF)

(16) An International Student may apply for a refund of Student Services and Amenities Fee (SSAF) where the International Student withdraws or discontinues from a Program prior to the Census date in that Term.

Section 8 - Eligibility for a Refund of Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC)

(17) An International Student may apply for a refund of any OSHC fees paid to the OSHC provider via the University where the International Student withdraws from or discontinues their Program. The amount refunded will be determined by the policies of the relevant OSHC provider.

(18) The University will not accept any application for a refund of any OSHC fees where the OSHC was not arranged directly by the University. The International Student may need to apply to their OSHC provider or their sponsor directly.

Section 9 - Applying for a Refund

(19) To obtain a refund, the International Student must first complete the Application for a Refund of International Fees which is available on the University website.

(20) The University will only assess applications that are complete and that have all relevant supporting documentation attached.

Section 10 - How Refunds Will Be Made

(21) If the University accepts the application for a refund, the refund amount will be calculated after all outstanding debts to the University have been paid, and after clearance of all relevant funds received by the University.

(22) Refunds will be made to the same person or organisation from whom the Fees were originally received.

(23) Refunds will usually be processed within 4 weeks of acceptance of an application unless clause 5(c) applies, in which case the refund will be processed within 2 weeks.

(24) The University will make refunds in the same way as the original payment was made, in either Australian dollars or foreign currency.

Section 11 - Refunds to Third Parties

(25) Where a non-contracted third party (e.g. sponsor, parent, friend or family member) made the original payment of an International Student's Fees, the International Student may need to sign the application for a refund.

(26) Where a contracted third party made the original payment of an International Student's Fees, the University will correspond directly with that third party in respect of any application for a refund.

Section 12 - Refund of Credit Balances

(27) The International Student may be entitled to a refund of any unused portion of Tuition Fees paid if upon completion of their Program they have a credit balance of Tuition Fees.

Section 13 - Complaints and the Right of Appeal

(28) If the International Student is not satisfied with the outcome of their application for a refund, they may make a complaint or lodge an appeal. Information is available about the Complaints Process.

Glossary Terms and Definitions

"University" - The University of Newcastle, a body corporate established under sections 4 and 5 of the University of Newcastle Act 1989.

"Campus" - means any place or premises owned or controlled by the University, but may also specifically refer to a designated operating location such as the Callaghan Campus.

"Census date" - The date in each term on which a student / candidate enrolled in a course is deemed to be financially liable for the course.

"Complaint" - As defined in Australian/New Zealand Standard - Guidelines for complaint management in organisations.

"Credit" - When referring to course credit, credit is the recognition of equivalence in content and learning outcomes between different types of learning and/or qualifications. Credit can reduce the amount of learning required to achieve a qualification. For all other uses of this term, the generic definition applies.

"Law" - All applicable statutes, regulations, by-laws, ordinances or subordinate legislation in force from time to time anywhere in Australia, whether made by the Commonwealth, a State, a Territory or a local government and, where the context permits, includes the common law and equity.

"Student" - A person formally enrolled in a course or active in a program offered by the University or affiliated entity.

"Principal program" - The highest qualification, usually the main or last program, in a packaged program.

"Student Services and Amenities Fee (SSAF)" - Is a fee collected by the University to fund non-academic student services and amenities.

"Term" - When referring to an academic period, term means a period of time aligned to an academic year for the delivery of a course in which students enrol and for which they are usually charged fees for example semesters, trimesters, summer, winter or full-year term. The academic year for a term is determined by the academic year in which the course commences, not concludes. For all other uses of this term, the generic definition applies.

"Third party" - A person or group other than the University or any of the University's partner institutions.
